Anima –Animus

Medium: Acrylic on
Size: 24" x 48" canvas

The Anima is the female soul image of a man. The Animus is the male soul image of a woman. Simply it means that a man has some characteristics of a woman like kindness, tenderness, emotion etc. This is not the bad thing to have in a male but in fact it is necessary to understand a woman better. It makes a person complete with one's Anima/Animus; he/she is a well-balanced human being. Carl Gustav Jung a great psychoanalyst said that every human being has some Archetype within oneself. They are the "Shadows", "Anima", "Animus" and "Child". The shadow projects our dark side and we tend to see more in others. We see the shadow everywhere especially in the image of our religion, fear, anxiety, frustration Etc. The child Archetype is a pattern related to the hope and promise for new beginnings, the spirit of adventure and curiosity.

All day long thoughts of God
Pass through my mind.

As A Man Thinkth

Medium: Acrylic on canvas with Gayatri Mantra
Size: 24" x 30"

"Most people live... whether physically, intellectually or normally in a very restricted circle of their potential being." William James. Just imagine the amount of toxic waste we put inside every single day – physically and mentally. The worries, anxieties, fretting about the past, brooding over the future and those self-created fears; brings pain, suffering and sadness. We are not true to ourselves. We say something and mean something else. We worry about failed relationship or financial problems. We brood over trifling matters. We move around wearing mask on our real feelings and behaviour. We are destroying our selves physically, mentally and emotionally. We are filled with emotions, desires and thoughts – some are bursting with anger and jealousy- some for peace and harmony - some with just pure loving thoughts and kindness to fellow beings. Whatever maybe the conflicts and doubts within us, whatever maybe our way of life – we all finally turn to our Creator and raise our hands either in praise or to deliver us with His blessings or for our desires to be fulfilled.

Swirling Aum

The painting expresses itself through colors and forms. According to Wassily Kandinsky, “ a painting can stand alone as a representation of an object and colors cannot because it needs specific boundaries. In this art both colors and forms are incorporated in harmony. They are the principal carrier of emotion, beauty, joy, music and happiness, without the need to be translated into words and concepts.

Keeping an open eyes to all influences from the world of art, nature and beyond. I do not limit myself to one style as it would be putting limit to my creativity, which I cannot do. I create art with multitude of style and media because that is the way I experience life.

Abstracts, landscapes, Mixed Media...I love to explore and be consumed by the creative fire within me.
